from PAVOLINI. RITTER was also held because suspected of being attached to the British Intelligence Service.

18 With the arrest of STEFANI, the M.G.I.R. ceased to function and the members were dispersed.

19 MATTEZZI, TAILLI, LUMINI and CALVANI were assumed by the PFR as inspectors.

20 One FIORENTA was recruited by the SD in VERONA, and one BIANCARDI was recruited by the SD in Corso del Littorio 10, MILAN under the command of Capt. BEUER.

21 One BASCO and one PINELLI of the M.G.I.R. went to VENEZIA to promote Anti-Slavic propaganda; and it is reported that they contacted Italo SAURO.

22 Some of the M.G.I.R. members joined the partisan group "LORENZINI" and Subject remembers the names of VALANTI, GIUGNI and RIONDINO as among this group.

3. Visit to the Offices of R.S.H.A. BERLIN:

24 In December 1944 Subject was advised by Giovanni PREZIOSI, his friend and who was acquainted with ministerial circles, that Guido BUFFARINI, Minister of Interior wanted to arrest him (Subject) because he had criticized the Republican Fascist authorities stating that they were incompetent.

25 Upon learning that he was being looked for, Subject went to BERLIN and took residence at the Hotel PURSEHNHOF. He met there the delegates of the German Ministry of Propaganda for Italy: Doctor SCHAEFFER for the Press and BUESSEL of the political section.
